Appointed for Administration of Justice to the People in SCOTLAND.

CHRISTEN GAS
LIBRARY ACCESSION

Orasmuch as there be many laudable Laws and Acts of Parliament of this Nation made for suppressing of Sorners, broken Highlanders, Borderers, and such as have disquieted the peace of the Nation in former times: And in particular the 93, 94, 97, 98, 101, 103, and 109 Acts of the Eleventh Parliament of King James the Sixth, besides many other Acts and Statutes of Parliament and Privy Councell, tending to the prevention and remedy thereof, which by reason of the late Troubles of the Countrey, have not been put in execution, whereby many loose and turbulent persons, such as against whom these Acts and Statutes were made and provided, do now take occasion to trouble the Peace of the Countrey, and commit Out-rages, Insolencies and Depredations against the well-affected, and those who love the Peace of the Nation. For remedy whereof, and for prevention of any such disorders hereafter, and for the better keeping of the Peace and quiet of the Nation, It is hereby Ordained, That the
